

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The newspaper/broadcast cross-ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

As you consider rules about media ownership, please remember the USA is a country "Of, By and For the People" -- not just "for".
